Highlights

- High-altitude skiing at the foot of the Grossglockner
- The ideal resort for beginner and intermediate groups
- An attractive resort oozing quintessential Austrian charm
- Fabulous doorstep skiing accommodation option

Located at the foot of Austria's highest mountain, Grossglockner, Heiligenblut offers SkiBound groups doorstep and high-altitude skiing. With many of the snow-capped peaks extending beyond the 3,000m mark, skiing in the shadow of "Glockner" is a memorable experience for even the most seasoned of skiers. Thanks to its altitude, the slopes have good snow coverage and are supported by 50 snow cannons to ensure skiers can enjoy the two interlinked mountains of Heiligenblut late into the season.

JGH Heiligenblut...

SkiBound

There aren't too many more picturesque locations in Austria other than right at the foot of the country's tallest mountain and as the JGH Heiligenblut is also close to ski lifts, local amenities and an indoor swimming pool there's every reason to sit up and take note. Stunning scenery, doorstep skiing and the highest mountain in Austria out of your bedroom window – what more could you ask for? In a nutshell: great location close to main lifts and good choice of après ski.
